Workshop Notes

March 16: Alcohol Ink Ornaments w/ Bonnie Rand

Surface:

- Bonnie will be supplying each student with 4 ornaments to paint.
- If you would like to make more, you may bring you own clear plastic or glass ornaments.

Paint:

- We will be using alcohol inks which Bonnie will supply.
- If you have your own alcohol inks in specific colors that you want to use, please bring them along to class.

Other Supplies:

- Paper towels
- A shoe box, egg carton, or other container to transport your painted ornaments home. You don't want them rolling all around in the car!
- Canned air – Bonnie will have a couple of cans to share, but you have your own can, bring it along to help eliminate some wait time to use Bonnie's.

Secretary's Report

By Marsha Lamb

DPCF Minutes for Feb 17, 2024

Meeting started by Grace Pattison at 10:00AM

Grace thanked Pam Caley for teaching today.

Lynn Ingersol has arranged for an Art Sale at the Art Center to sell Barbara Layton's art work the week of August 12-17th. The Art Center will receive 30% of the sales and the remainder will go to St. Jude. Lynn will need volunteers to help with transporting the items and with the sale.

Grace had a basket made for Mary (Francis) Schuster to celebrate her wedding. It will be presented at the March meeting.

Deanna Spence volunteered to make new "decorative dollars" with our new name. Rewards will be the same as they were for ODA.

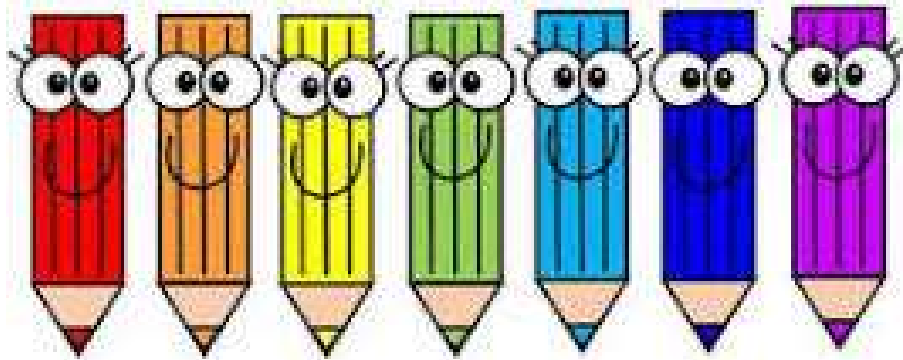

Debbie Smith brought three guests today: Marsha Wild, Nadia Davey, and Jonna Sailor. Marsha and Nadia joined DPCF today.

We also want to welcome new members Jeannine Nowicki and Mary Lee Holloway.

Debbie Smith will act as secretary for the March meeting since Marsha Lamb may not be present due to surgery. (Thanks to all of you for wishing me well while I recover.)

Next month's workshop will be Alcohol Ink Ornaments taught by Bonnie Rand. Please let Lynn know if you have any suggestions for future workshops or if you wish to teach. At this time we do not have anything scheduled after March.

Grace adjourned the meeting at 10:10 AM.
